PINON COULEE

Sam Hibdon is also having his teeth pulled this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rogers daughter, Mrs. Scott from Oklahoma, is visiting them this week.

Mr. Wallace purchased two fine Jersey cows at last Monday's sale.
Mr. Wallace knows how to beat the old "H.C.L."

Mrs. S. E. Tomlinson spent last Sunday and Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sam Hibdon.

With so many big sales on, and beans yet to haul to town, fall plowing to be done, winter wood to be cut and corn still in fields, farmers are thankful for so much nice sunny weather.

J. A. Denson hauled a load of beans to town today, trying out his fine young team, which he bought at last Monday's sale.
Truly Mr. Denson has a team to be proud of.

Mr. Denson and wife motored to Mountainair Tuesday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fox.
"The Foxes" are having quite a bit of dental work done—something we should all be more attentive to.

It is a fact that cats can feel slighted, for after Monday's sale, Sam Hibdon missed his "cats" and on Wednesday morning Mr.
Denson was inquiring who was minus a cat and three kittens. Upon investigation, it was found that the cats had felt slighted because no one "bid" on them, and they decided to migrate to new quarters. Mrs. Hibdon went for them and brought home the wanderers, promising not to slight them again (Truly some cats are more sensitive than some people.)

Well it is about "hog-killing time" and I must be going.
"Rainbow."

LONE STAR

Although the night was of the worst kind for our Pie Supper, we had a good crowd and took in $81.95, which will go to re-flooring (Pin is T) THMRFDWDW ing, ceiling and papering the schoolhouse.

Sam Meyer and family and Vernon Furman and family expect to leave for Arizona soon after their sale. The latter will enter a business college there.

H. W. Wood expects to drill a new well soon.

J. N. Steele killed two hogs Monday that weighed almost 400 pounds apiece.

P. W. Simkins and family expect to visit Oklahoma soon.

J. R. Jennings is building a new house.

PIE SUPPER

A Pie Supper and Program will be given at Liberty schoolhouse 18 miles southeast of Mountain-air, to which everyone is invited.

which time the affair will occur.
—Ed.)

Gifts Suited to Everyone

A handkerchief or a tie case, or a pair of ribbon-covered shoe-trees make gifts suited to either man or woman.
The tie case pictured is a length of ribbon folded envelope fashion and bound with gold braid. The handkerchief case employs narrow satin ribbon joined by fancy braid. Satin ribbon is slipped over the shoe-trees.

Lace and Satin Piece

Wide satin ribbon and Val lace give a good account of themselves in the attractive neckpiece shown above.
It is a vestee and collar combined, with a small "V"-shaped chemisette of lace, set in the vestee. The collar and chemisette are edged with narrow lace.

Pretty Powder Bowls

Pretty powder bowls and baskets are sure of a great vogue for Christmas gifts. The four pictured include a little basket covered with plaid silk, at the upper left, and just below it the puff attached to its cover and ribbon-covered handle. A similar basket, at the right, is surmounted by a little ribbon-dressed doll—a disguised powder puff. At the lower left a glass bowl supports a puff holding a doll's head and at the right a net-covered jar enthroned a Jap baby.

Pretty Breakfast Caps

Every dear lady, young or old, has a right to expect that Santa Claus will bring her a pretty new breakfast cap. Three of this year's models, all easy to make, are shown in the picture and they employ ribbons, net laces and flowers, as usual.

Doll House Furniture for a Girl's Christmas

By DOROTHY PERKINS

(Copyright by A. Neely Hall.)

This is one of the most unique puzzle blocks I have ever seen, and it makes a set of furniture that any girl would be glad to own for her doll house.
Stand the seven pieces of furniture shown in Figs. 1 to 7 upon a table, and tell a friend to fit them together so to form a symmetrical block of the dimensions shown in Fig. 8, and he will think that you are joking. It can be done, because the pieces were cut out of a block of the size shown. By comparing the letters which I have placed upon the pieces of furniture, with the letters upon the block in Fig. 9, you will see how the pieces fit together.

It is best to mark out the pieces exactly as they are indicated upon the block in Fig. 9, before starting to cut.
To save confusion only one cut is shown upon Figs. 11 and 12, in the order in which it should be made.

A small bracket saw, or what you probably know as a hand scroll-saw, should be used for cutting out the pieces, because a very fine blade is necessary. The block should be of white pine, free from knots and cracks, cut it to the dimensions shown in Fig. 8, and plane its surfaces straight and smooth; then upon the two face and two side surfaces, mark off the lines on which to cut. The corners are shown rounded because it is necessary to cut them that way in order to turn the corner with the saw blade.

The first piece to cut out is the table (Fig. 1); this is marked A in Figs.
9 and 10. When you have removed this piece from the two ends and one side of the block, a block like that shown in Fig. 11 will remain.

The next step is to separate the remaining block into two equal parts by sawing along the heavy lines shown in Fig. 11 (Fig. 12). This pair of blocks, you will see by Figs. 2 and 5, are to form the two chairs, after more cutting has been done. The block C, (Figs. 3 and 6), which becomes a foot-stool, must be sawed out of each chair base, as indicated in Figs. 13 and 14.

Then when this cutting has been done, block D must be cut out of the remaining portion of each chair base (Figs. 13 and 15), for tabourets (Figs.
4 and 7).

Unless you have done the marking and sawing very accurately, you will find it impossible to interlock the pieces except when placed in the positions they originally occupied. This will make a much better puzzle—harder to assemble the pieces.

Duty Toward Children

Men at large have a duty to childhood because they themselves have once been children. Each generation is a rebirth in its own life of the accumulated wisdom and pity of previous ages, and is in duty bound to pass that on, "plus a certain increment due to its own exertion.—Exchange.

Densely Populated Countries

populated country of the world, with 1,677 persons to the square mile. Saxony is next with 829, Belgium third with 618 and Holland next with 535.

For the whole of the world the number is 310, while the United States has only about 25 persons to the square mile, Canada two persons and Aus-

BEANGROWERS

Don't be Deceived Remember

The Association (that means all members as a body duly organized) "Stand back of all our Beans" when sold or unsold. The Association is responsible for all its obligations.

The Association does not "penalize" its members but its members show their faith in their institution by agreeing in writing to forfeit 25 cents per 100 pounds if sold outside, and many members declare they had rather loose more than that at present and stand pat than to sell outside and thereby destroy their own opportunity for betterment.
